FOLLOWING THE L.H.S. RANCH TRAIL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, entered L. H. S. Ranch in the Fall of 1949 as newcomers to the trade—dudes in the eyes of the upperclassmen. In our junior year we advanced to the much coveted wrangler name—a class of cowpokes who were beginning to gain recognition on the range. Now, we are cattle kings—the last vantage point on the trail of progression. Just as we followed the L.H.S. Ranch trail to completion, so will you—from dudes to wranglers to cattle kings.

This, the 1952 LAHIAN, is an account of the cowpokes, the activities, the thrills and spills connected with life at L. H. S. Ranch. We hope your 1952 work at the ranch has been profitable and we hope, also, that your enthusiasm for this pictorial review of your employment here will equal that of the staff, who has made it for you.

The LAHIAN Staff

Dear Nancy, best of luck to you, you really do deserve it. You are a swell pal-

Miss Ora Baker

In deep admiration of the willing aid which she gives to each and everyone alike, for her gay enthusiasm for the hardest of undertakings, for her ready smile and capable qualities as a teacher and a friend, we, the Senior Class, dedicate the 1952 LAHIAN to Miss Ora Baker.

CATTLE KINGS

SENIOR HOMEROOM OFFICERS

Dave New, Jim Pennington, Mary Lou Sode, Joan Faas, Gerry Gant, Patsy Gregg, Shelley Basham, Margaretta Williamson

The Class of 1952 entered L. H. S. Ranch in 1949 as puzzled dudes who were not quite sure of themselves, their work, or their new associates. After a three year stay here they had learned the ropes of ranch life and found themselves possessors of an uncountable wealth—knowledge—and could rightly call themselves the Cattle Kings of '52.

Now, they are leaving—setting out on the trail of life. Whether the riding on this trail will be rough or smooth is very dependent on the experience gained during their efforts here.

And as they go forth into the wider range of the world, we hear them shout in unison:

"Now we mount our ready horse
And bid you all Good Day.
Farewell to hi school pleasures,
Hi Ho Tinfoil! Away! ! !"

JUNIOR HOMEROOM OFFICERS

Dave Zott, Joe Ficklin, Jane O'Neil, Lillian Koneman, Marcia Nylander, Reneé Bird, Pete Clemes

In the two years the Wranglers have been with us they have proven themselves capable of assuming the responsibilities left to them by the departing Cattle Kings. Versatile in their enthusiasm for work as well as play, they are marked by traits of ambition, friendliness, and sincerity. Possessing these qualities endows them with ability to lasso a herd of accomplishments and successes, if they but wish to do so.

The fate of L. H. S. Ranch is in your hands, Wranglers, and we're sure your motto will be:

"Ever ready for the future,
Our success no one can mar.
Forward Class of '53;
Hitch our wagon to a star!"

Dear Nancy,
Here's wishing loads of luck and happiness to the very sweet gal I've really come to think of as a friend. I don't think we'll ever lose touch with each other. Keep in touch until this year is over and then it will be just a memory. Just because we're not going to school together anymore doesn't mean we can't keep in touch. Let's get together and have a real swell time. Have a real fun summer and have lots of luck this year.
Regards to all your folks and lots of love,

SOPHOMORE HOMEROOM OFFICERS

Bill Cummings, Dave Marsh, Mike Powell, Don White, Patsy Chippendale, Ann Storm, Mark Gilmore, Dick Klemer

With gates swung wide, L. H. S. Ranch welcomed the Dudes, the class of '54, into its midst. Distinguishable by the many question marks floating over their heads, these likeable cowhands fitted themselves into the routine of the range and in one short year showed themselves quite adept at the rigors of ranch life. Readily such questions as which end of the horse is the riding end, how to mount stairs, and the advantage of being on time to Round-up were answered and they were able to give invaluable assistance to the Wranglers and Cattle Kings.

Still there is much to be learned in the territory of the Ranch but we can hear the sophies gaily sing:

"Our merits are many;
Our faults are few!
We're Wild Bill Hic Cups,
We'll give you a clue!"
